

In order to offer a personalised service, Cyclator Kft. may place and read back a small data package known as a cookie on the computer of the User. It wishes to inform you about the personal data recorded by them.

Cyclator Kft. (registered office: 3200 Gyöngyös, Kőrösi Csoma Sándor út 4, Building 1, Ground Floor 3, tax number: 25447558-2-10; company registration no.: 10-09-035511) processes your personal data in accordance with this Privacy Notice.

1. The Controller and the persons authorised to carry out processing, data protection officer

Cyclator Kft. is the Controller

Cyclator Kft. did not appoint a data protection officer given that they do not carry out any processing activity that would require it.

2. Cookies and web beacons

A cookie is a small information package consisting of letters and numbers. The web server automatically sends the cookie to the visitor's browser when they visit the site for the first time. The visitor's computer or mobile device stores the cookie for the duration specified by the person placing the cookie.

The browser will send the cookie back to the web server during the subsequent visit to the website. Based on the data sent, the web server can identify the computer or mobile device sending the cookie and connect the cookies sent by that device.

The cookie provides the web server with information on activity performed between visits to the website.

A web beacon is a small, generally unnoticeable, image placed on the website. By placing web beacons, the visitors actions on the website can be tracked and statistics can be generated from the data obtained.

Cyclator Kft. places cookies and web beacons on the website to recognise an individual who has visited the website before; to map the visitor's interests; improve the visitor's user experience and show personalised ads to the visitor as well as to improve the security of the website.

3. Legal ground and purpose of data processing

The legal ground of the data processing is your consent, which can be granted or rejected at any time through the appropriate Internet browser settings.

The purpose of the data processing is to collect general statistics about website visitors.

4. Processed data and duration of the data processing

The processed data is the IP address, the operating system used, the browser type, the visited URLs and the time of the visit. Based on the cookies used on the site, only general statistics are generated, no personal identification is possible. The data subjects are the visitors of the website and the users.

Cookies created during a visit to the Website may belong to several categories:

- Basic cookies: cookies without which the essential features of the website would not be able to function properly.
- Performance-enhancing cookies: these cookies collect information about how visitors use the website. For example, which are the most frequently visited blogs and the most visited articles. These cookies are used by our website for statistical purposes to improve and maintain user experience.
- Functional cookies: these cookies allow the website to remember certain previously entered data, such as your personal preferences.
- Targeting/advertising cookies: these cookies help to deliver you offers through our advertising surfaces that best match your interests. In providing these services, the website may also work with third parties, but the Website may only disclose personal data to them with the prior notice and consent of the user, or in the case of a resolution order (e.g. by request of a legal body).

This site may include links to third party sites that are under the control of and maintained by third parties. Since the website does not control the use of such information by such third parties, in all such cases, the provisions of the third party's Privacy Policy shall be applied, for which the site does not assume responsibility and may not be held legally liable. The website reserves the right to change any part of this Policy at any time. Please visit this page regularly and learn about any changes that may have occurred.

5. Recipients of the personal data

Recorded data are processed by employees of Cyclator Kft. We have entrusted a third party with the provision of the IT background.

6. The processing of the data of persons below the age of 16

Personal data of a person who has not yet completed 16 years of age may only be processed with the consent of the adult exercising parental supervision over them. The Controller may not verify the eligibility of content of the declaration of the person providing consent, and therefore the User or the individual exercising parental supervision over them warrants that the consent complies with the laws and regulations. Without a declaration of consent the controller does not collect any personal data about the data subject who has not yet completed 16 years of age. If we become aware of the fact that we have collected personal data from a child under the age of 16, we will take the necessary steps to erase the data as soon as possible.

7. Blocking the placement of cookies and web beacons

If you want to block the placement of a cookie or web beacon on your computer or mobile device, you can do so in your browser's settings menu. If a visitor blocks to use of cookies and web beacons, then it is possible that they may not be able to use some of the features of the website.
